 Sell anything leftover at kiss and drop at the end of the school day
Principal's Report ECE Semester 2 2021 All ECE EA's to be moved from part time to full time. All ECE EA's to start work at 8.20 and finish work at 3.20 All K classes to open their doors at 8.35am and dismiss children from 3.10pm as per P to 6 classes. I believe that this structural change is in the best interests of our Kindy students. After school parking issues - safety It has been brought to my attention that the northern oval parking is dangerous as there are children running in front of cars after school. The original protocols that we developed are not being adhered to. Actions: We'll have a special whole school meeting at the area tomorrow after lunch. I'll reiterate the protocols to our students. I'll send out a Connect message reiterating the protocols. Either Bec Robson or I will supervise the duty.	David Knox
Treasurer's Report See attached reports. Moved by Lauren Pavlich that financial reports dated June 2021 be taken as read and confirmed; seconded by Sophy Foreman; members supported.	Gavin Hartley

Environmental Committee

Containers for Change

- Using us as an example we have done so well!!
- Look at getting a Cottesloe Beach Hotel on board as a regular contributor.
- Action: Gavin Hartley to speak to Cottesloe Golf Club re. donating their eligible containers to Containers for Change.

'Worn Up'

 Once donations come in they will be boxed up and once the box is completely full they will be sent to Worn Up.

Uniform Shop

Closing the Uniform Shop books

- Some stock is still pending. Polos and fleecies are expected next week but some are not expected until after our outsourcing date to Tudor of 1st July.
- Extras that have been ordered will still be part of the buyback but won't be finalised financially for an extra month or two.
 We'll need to keep the Uniform Shop books running for that period to finalise payments.

Swimming Caps

- P&C will buy out swimming caps at retail price of $3.50 each.
 Current stock is at 116 across houses (total cost $406.00).
- Moved by Lauren Pavlich that $406 is designated to purchase swimming caps from the uniform shop; seconded by Joy Davies; members supported.

Library Bags

o 60 library bags have been ordered and have arrived. There will be for a total of 70 for the P&C to donate to the 2022 Kindy intake. They will need to be written off prior to 1st July.

Agreement with Tudor

- Tudor are buying back their own stock items at 100% and at 70% for other suppliers items.
- It will be important to let teachers/P&C members know about the obligation to go to Tudor for first quote on any additional uniform items (such as Leavers shirts, netball dresses or choir shirts) as per the contract.

Double Payments

- o All double payments have been rectified:
- o Tudor $3,833.75
- Splash Alley $302.50

9 Funding requests

■ Worn-Up

 Moved by Lauren Pavlich that $160 is designated to purchase four postage boxes for the Worn-Up initiative; seconded by Daniel Lee; members supported.

	 "Swanny on the Green 2022" Week 4 – Friday 25th of February. Option to perform – DJ? Local Swanbourne family artists e.g. Hattie and Freeze Frame Opera, Jay Piefinch, maybe Phil Warren. Prebook a hamper – looking at quotes from Samphire and other suppliers for hamper/picnic style option or other food options for onsite or pre-booked via Trybooking. Action: Joy Davies and Grace Jones to explore food options for "Swannie on the Green". Sell kid's artwork or get a visiting artist? Wine wall – donations of a box of wine, buy a ticket for $100 which wins you a random box of wine. Do we want to release a Picnic rug or other merchandise? Action: Lauren Pavlich to speak to Zoe Moss re: options for merchandise for "Swanny on the Green". Action: Further ideas for "Swanny on the Green" to be discussed at next Meeting. Busy Bee? Consider doing it in the holidays when kids aren't using equipment. P&C Online Portal Action: Daniel Lee to investigate creating a P&C online portal.
